

COMPLYING WITH THE GLAA LICENSING STANDARDS

1 DAY WORKSHOP FOR LABOUR USERS AND LABOUR PROVIDERS

This workshop provides an excellent grounding in the skills and knowledge to enable both labour providers and labour users to implement processes to assure compliance to the Gangmasters & Labour Abuse Authority Licensing Standards.

It is particularly recommended for both suppliers and their labour providers to attend together to encourage a partnership approach towards addressing areas for improvement.

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

SECTION 1

Background and current issues in UK food industry agency labour

SECTION 2

Working in partnership towards best practice

SECTION 3

Complying with the GLAA Standards - clause by clause

All attendees receive the ALP “Model Service Level Agreement” - a model template for managing the specific arrangements for agency labour supply.

DELEGATE FEEDBACK

“Excellent! Very informative and some good information to take away. Will definitely be buying the auditing tool”

“I felt the day was very educational and I picked up lots of tips and helpful ideas that I can use in our business”

“Really enjoyed the course. It was broken down in sections which we easily understood. A very hard subject was made very interesting”

“Really worthwhile. Would be good to attend something to keep up to date with legislation”
